

KEMAL FORCES WAR CRISIS

DEMANDS BRITISH WITHDRAW; GUNS SET FOR ACTION

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29.—The situation between the British and the Turkish Nationalists was extremely tense tonight. A note from Mustafa Kemal Pasha to Brig-Gen. Harington, the British commander, couched in a hostile tenor, was considered by British military circles here as closing the door to a pacific settlement of the straits question. The prospects of an armed conflict were considered more evident than previously.

The note of Kemal demands the retirement of all the British troops from the Asiatic side of the straits, as the French and Italians have done, and says in case of acquiescence he will withdraw the Nationalist forces "silently" from the neutral zone.

NEW DEMANDS MADE
It also demands the cessation of what are termed the arbitrary measures of the British authorities in Constantinople dealing with the Turkish population and a solemn undertaking that no Greek vessel shall be permitted to pass the Dardanelles. It concludes with a protest against the destruction of Turkish war material in the straits.

The note of Kemal was in reply to the last written communication of Gen. Harington, transmitted through Hamid Bey, the Nationalist representative in Constantinople, to Kemal in Smyrna. It is felt in British circles tonight that they would be forced to modify their conciliatory attitude at the moment the Turks bring up heavy artillery with which they would be able to threaten seriously the European side of the Dardanelles and also hamper passage of British vessels through the straits.

It is felt in British circles tonight that they would be forced to modify their conciliatory attitude at the moment the Turks bring up heavy artillery with which they would be able to threaten seriously the European side of the Dardanelles and also hamper passage of British vessels through the straits.

While admitting that the letters were genuine, Sun insisted that inaccurate translations had been made and the interpretation put on them, asserting that they revealed his intention to see in a compact to support the Nationalist cause.

Mr. Hearst, precluded the possibility of an agreement.

MURPHY'S POSITION
In announcing his own position Mr. Murphy supplied the Mayor and Mr. Conners with an accurate statement covering the views of delegates of every town in the State. He said that he had painstakingly investigated the situation and the result permitted of only one conclusion.

This was that 85 per cent of the delegates in the convention desired the nomination of Smith and not the nomination of Hearst.

This overwhelming sentiment for Smith, said Murphy, compelled him reluctantly to decide that his duty was to respect the popular demand for the nomination of Mr. Smith.

One of the participants in this conference quoted Murphy as pumping this question at Mr. Hearst.

"How would you feel, as a leader of Tammany Hall if I disregarded the wishes of 85 per cent of the delegates throughout the State and nominated you?"

The question was asked in a way that made it impossible for the nominee to answer.

Mr. Murphy attempted to soften the blow administered to the Hearst ambition by suggesting the editor-publisher propose candidates for the Senatorial and, in fact, for the Governorial ticket.

The Mayor and Mr. Conners declined to make any suggestion along this line. They informed Murphy that they would have to inform their principal of the situation and leave the rest to him.

HEARST AGENTS QUIET
Having taken the plunge, Murphy set about organizing the machinery for the construction of a ticket suitable to Smith. Until Mr. Hearst's telegram of withdrawal was received the Mayor and Mr. Conners, with their retinue of Hearst agents, maintained an eloquent silence.

They retired to their hotel and remained there until the celebration of the election.

The celebrators stormed the Smith quarters and then scattered.

The Mayor and Mr. Conners attempted to conceal his gratification over the elimination of his opponent.

Besides Miller, the men indicted are Fred Mader, defendant in the Murphy-Mader murder trial, and William (Bill) Curran, business agent of the plumbers' union, and former president of the Building Trades Council.

William (Bill) Curran, business agent of the plumbers' union, and former president of the Building Trades Council, was charged with conspiracy, extortion and assault to kill.

Henry (Smash) Hanson, alleged union slinger, was charged with conspiracy, extortion and assault to kill.

Thomas J. Hogan, business agent of the plumbers' union, was charged with conspiracy, extortion and assault to kill.

Alto Braverman, a member of the fixture hangers' union, was charged with conspiracy, extortion and assault to kill.

DRIVER INCLUDED
Miller, the seventh man indicted, also was a defendant in the Murphy-Mader murder trial and admitted being the driver of the automobile from which the Chicago Building Trades Council was shot.

The first indictment charged Mader, Braverman, Hanson and Curran with conspiracy to extort money from George H. Cook, contractor.

The indictment against Cook charged the men with extorting $150 from Cook for their "services" in preventing a strike.

The second indictment named Hogan, Mader, Miller, McCarthy and Curran in connection with an attempt to kill Edmund Scherffens, a watchman employed by Edmonds & Co., on a building at Washington and Robey streets.

On this occasion, the indictment charged the men with threatening the watchman with a pistol and returning later with a bomb and dynamite.

The explosion Scherffens arm was torn off and he was otherwise seriously injured.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED
Mader, Hogan, McCarthy, Curran, Hanson and Miller are charged in the third indictment with conspiracy to commit malicious mischief on the property of Sharp, Partridge & Co.

Bonds of each of the men were fixed at $25,000 each, with $5,000 cash and $20,000 in real estate.

The evidence against the men was presented in short order by Special Prosecutor Claude Miller.

The true bills were returned by Judge McKinley.

Mader, Miller, McCarthy, who were defendants with Timothy D. (Big Tim) Murphy and Cornelius J. (Big Sam) Mader, were charged with conspiracy to murder.

Lieut. Terrence Lyons, a West Park policeman, will be tried again for the murder charge.

Hogan and Braverman named in the indictments returned today, are also held as important witnesses in the second trial of the three men for the murder conspiracy.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Bear traders conducted another successful attack against prices in today's early stock market, using the unfavorable overnight news in the Near Eastern situation, and the abandonment of the Republic-Midvale inland steel merger as an excuse for their assault.

Prices were forced down to new low levels on the current reaction before the shorts ran into substantial buying power, and the extent of this caused a scramble to cover, starting a rally which carried a number of issues well above yesterday's closing figures.

Indications that the abandonment of the steel merger was unexpected in the financial community were seen in the sharp break in Republic, which was carried down 4 1/2 points before recovery set in, the net loss for the day being 3 1/2 points. Midvale offered a little more resistance to selling pressure, yielding only 2 points. U. S. Steel common, Bethlehem "B," Standard Oil and American Tobacco, in sympathy, but all rallied later. United States Steel registering a small fractional gain for the day.

In the final hour, American Locomotive being pushed up 1/4 point, and Republic recovering 1/2 point. Foundry 2 1/4, Pullman 1 1/4 and Lima Locomotive 1. Pittsburgh Coal also shook off its recent heavy losses, gaining 1/2 point, and other shares also moved to higher ground.

Standard Oil of California and New Jersey moved in an erratic manner, weakening in response to the sharp break in Standard of New York on the curb, which was attributed to the failure of the directors at their meeting today to announce plans for capital readjustment. They recovered later, each showing a net gain of more than a point on the day. Mexican Petroleum fluctuated within a radius of nearly 4 points, closing at a net loss of 1 1/4 points.

Tobacco shares were under pressure, Liggett-Smyth dropping 6 points and American Tobacco "A" and "B" declining 2 or more, but recovering later. Improved more than tobacco, with the rally. In the better demand for copper, zinc and lead shares, most of which showed slight gains. May Department Stores, Iron Products and Retail Stores. Total sales were 1,059,000 shares.

Cash money opened and renewed at 4 1/2 per cent, and advanced to 5 in the early afternoon, holding at that level until the close. Money market quiet, with no appreciable change in rates, but there was a good demand for commercial paper.

The feature of the foreign exchange market was the quoting of the Canadian dollar at a premium. Unsettled conditions in the foreign market caused a sharp break in sterling in London, and the dollar, which had been dropping to 4.37, but rallying somewhat later. Continental rates eased in sympathy but less sharply.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Lack of a definite trend continues to stand out as the most important feature of the local exchange market. The majority of the stocks are merely backing and filling, and display no outward tendencies of moving greatly in either direction.

Tom Reed sold at 84 cents yesterday, while Telluride and Outman United sold up to 24 1/2. The market was moderately active at 35 and 23 respectively.

The oil market was quiet, General Petroleum selling at 115.50 and United Oil at 90 cents. Southern California Edison common continues its persistent fractional advances and sold yesterday at 118.50.

The California White Spot Association, whose sole purpose is unrelenting opposition to oriental immigration, was formed at a meeting held here on Wednesday of this week, and is now preparing for a forceful campaign, according to an announcement yesterday by Leonard Wilson, local attorney, and general counsel of the new organization.

"California wants peace," declared Williams, "but we cannot feel contented as our children imbibe the first rudiments of their education in classrooms crowded with children of a different race. California wants to retain this commonwealth for her own people, where they may grow up and develop their own ideas. California must not make the mistake of Hawaii."

"The Japanese have skillfully evaded the so-called 'gentlemen's agreement.' Picture brides have been brought in, and have been permitted to work on the farm lands of the State. Large numbers have been smuggled across the Mexican border, and have been brought here by the use of the Japanese consul. It is to battle this situation that the California White Spot Association has been formed. Already leaders in every walk of life in the city and State have requested membership."

STRIKERS HELD FOR CONTEMPT

Men Accused of Violating Federal Court Injunction Issued Here

In the case of Tom Jones, Jack Allen and George Harrigan, striking Santa Fe strikers at Fresno, charged to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of court in having violated the injunction order issued recently by the local federal court, U. S. District Judge Blodgett yesterday ordered U. S. Dist. Atty. Burke to prepare an information against the three men.

He held that they had not purged themselves of contempt by producing a number of affidavits in the matter. Whether they will be held for trial here or in Fresno will not be determined until Monday, when the bond will be fixed.

R. H. Clements and John A. Steinklein, the last two of the indicted Santa Fe strikers, charged with abandoning the transcontinental train at Needles, Cal., on August 10, will come out to hide this morning. It was said, and furnished bond in the sum of $2500 each before Commissioner Long. They are both do-gooders.

The money to furnish the bond in the case of Clements and Steinklein is coming from the National Bank of Needles, which will be consigned to the Citizens' National Bank of this city, payable to the order of Hugh L. Dickinson, who is to be an attorney of the strikers, in connection with Jud Rush.

Arrangements have been made for the appearance of the eight indicted men in the local federal court, U. S. District Judge Blodgett, on October 3.

Youths Taught How to Shoot; Not Gun, Craps

EL CENTRO, Sept. 29.—A colored hunting club sans guns and other paraphernalia, that would naturally ornament such a place, but replete in poker chips, whiskey bottles, South African dominos and other equipment, was yesterday woe the elusive goddess of chance, was raided on the east side by El Centro police last night. Eight dusky champions of Ethiopian inclinations were taken into custody.

Chief of Police Dave Matlock this morning stated that they claimed to be a regular chartered hunting club, where colored boys were taught the art of shooting, but all indications pointed to the fact that the so-called shooting meant shooting craps.

"HERALD" HEARSTS, HE ADMITS

Ownership of Afternoon Newspaper Acknowledged After Years of Denial

Guarded editorial announcement is made in the Los Angeles Evening Herald that William Randolph Hearst has become "associated" in the ownership of that newspaper, the inference being made that he has just purchased or otherwise acquired a certain interest in the property.

Mr. Hearst actually bought the Herald—the whole of it, and without the participation of any other person in the deal—eleven years ago, and has retained this complete ownership ever since. Others have appeared as the nominal owners, but as in the case of Brisbane and the Washington Times, the real owner has always been Hearst.

Whether Mr. Hearst's political aspirations have anything to do with this belated acknowledgment of the Herald has not been made public.

STEAMER FROM HAWAII DOCKS NOON MONDAY

The steamship City of Los Angeles, carrying the Chamber of Commerce party back from their Hawaiian trip, will not dock until Monday at about noon. It was announced yesterday by the Federal Telegraph Office, which had received a radiogram from the vessel.

The ship was expected to dock Sunday. No cause for the delay was given in the message.

DANIEL FROHMAN ARRIVES

Motion Picture Colony in Royal Welcome to Veteran Play Producer, Here for Fund Drive

Daniel Frohman, veteran theatrical producer and president of the Actors' Fund of America, arrived last night from New York to conduct the campaign for life members of the fund that the local production will begin today. Men and women prominent in the motion picture industry met Mr. Frohman at the Santa Fe station and escorted him to the Hollywood Hotel, where he will live during his visit here.

The veteran theatrical producer of the Great White Way was out here last year on a similar errand, at the time of the Actors' Fund benefit. So he has made many friends among the picture people of the Southland, and says he is glad to be back with them.

ROSCOE GOING BACK TO WORK

Comedian Will Try Comeback in Film World

How He's Going to Make Good Not Revealed

Arbuckle on Way Here; Plays Released Soon

Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, film comedian, will return to Los Angeles this morning ready to stage a comeback in the cinema world, according to Milton Cohen, attorney for Arbuckle during the latter's trials and final exoneration on a charge of being responsible for the death of Virginia Rappe a year ago.

Arbuckle, who has just returned from what was scheduled as a tour of the Orient, left San Francisco for here last night. That he is prepared to reappear on the screen was stated by Mr. Cohen. Details of Arbuckle's plans for his comeback were withheld, but it was declared that he not only will star in more pictures soon but that some of his other plays which were never released following the accusations placed against Arbuckle in San Francisco when Miss Rappe died, will soon be offered to the public.

"Will Arbuckle return to the Famous Players-Lasky lot?" Mr. Cohen was asked.

"I can not tell at this time just what his plans are," the attorney said. "When the episode of last year occurred, his contract was cancelled and there are no strings on him."

"I know nothing about it," was Jesse L. Lasky's only comment. Arbuckle, whose magnificent home on West Adams was reported lost to him following the manslaughter case and its attending expenses, will probably stay with his family in a few weeks, he is able to move into a new home, it was stated.

WATERS ARE NERVOUS

Just ahead of them were Mr. and Mrs. Cohen. They also were lining them. Mr. Cohen had declared in the verbal exchange, man who can't shoot straight with his wife, can't shoot straight at a man. "I'm going to let Mr. Hart blow away at me with both guns when I'm standing only ten feet away from him."

This idea of the two-gun man's ability with the shooting iron, however, apparently was not shared by the manager of the cafe, for four or five obviously nervous waiters paced about the two tables like sentries on their beats.

Mr. Cohen was seen to lean toward his wife and say something in a low tone. She looked quickly at the Hart table. Much of the remainder of her dinner was left untouched.

WALKED SIDE BY SIDE

The waiters shifted their glances from the table at which sat the Harts to Mr. and Mrs. Cohen. The latter soon arose to leave and just as they started down the stairs, Bill Hart and his sister also started down.

Almost side by side, the two verbal duellists walked down from the cafe. Not a word was passed—not even a glance exchanged, according to one interested witness.

Word from Mrs. Hart yesterday was to the effect that she is recuperating at her beach home in Santa Monica and within a few weeks will return to Los Angeles with her baby boy, William S. Hart Jr.

In the meantime, friends of the Harts declare there have been no further indications of a possible adjustment of the marital troubles that culminated in the separation of $250,000 property settlement and the announced intention of Mrs. Hart to file suit for divorce.

POINTS IN NUTRITION ARE GIVEN

Children's Meals Should Include Vegetables and Fruit; Coffee Harmful

- (1.) Fresh clean whole milk should be the basis of the daily diet of every child. Each child requires at least a pint and a quart if possible. A quart always for undernourished and younger children.
- (2.) Every child should have at least two vegetables a day. This means one or two besides potatoes. Leafy vegetables should be used at least three times a week.
- (3.) Fruit should be used as a part of one meal each day. If this cannot be afforded insist on a third vegetable. Dried fruits are valuable if fresh fruit cannot be afforded.
- (4.) Cereals should be used daily. Served with milk for breakfast or supper, they afford a good foundation for the child's meal.
- (5.) Allow at least three to four pounds of fat per week for every five persons and not over four pounds of sugar.
- (6.) Water is very important. Children and adults should drink plenty between meals and a moderate quantity at meals.
- (7.) A child should never go to school without his breakfast.
- (8.) Every child should have a good hot luncheon, with either soup, or cocoa or a hot vegetable dish.
- (9.) Mornings and mid-afternoon lunches should be given only when the regular meals are five or six hours apart. Regularity is very important.
- (10.) Give children plenty of bulky and vegetable food, such as whole wheat, fruits and fresh vegetables.
- (11.) Meal times should be both regular and cheerful.

TOMATOES RICH IN VITAMINES

Form Valuable Adjunct to Diet List; Eatable in Many Forms

Not so long ago a famous food authority was saying to his audience and students: "Tomatoes give a pleasant taste to the meal, but as for food value you might as well eat colored water."

The wonderful thing about this great man is that he is great enough to be simple and straightforward. Today that same food authority is publicly smiling at his own words, calling attention to the fact that tomatoes contain not one but three of the vitamins!

The first thing that you should know about tomatoes is that when oranges are very expensive and the baby must have orange juice, that very often the physician will let you use tomato juice instead.

The water soluble B vitamins which the tomato contains is the appetite stimulating vitamins and this gives the tomato a place that no other food can fill, for the attractive flavor and appetizing color of the tomato make it easy to introduce into the menu and hence eaten Nature does the rest!

The second thing is that canned tomatoes are almost equally valuable as a protective food, the heat seemingly not affecting the vitamins content.

Another interesting fact is that fried or boiled tomatoes make an unusually appetizing breakfast dish, served hot with toast.

Combined with oatmeal, tomatoes form a very nourishing soup and one that makes it easy to eat children into eating oatmeal. The tomatoes, dry rolled oats and seasoning are put on together and cooked for an hour, then run from the fire and strained. Varying the flavor and adding whipped cream converts this into "party" soup. Such a soup should be included in a menu for an undernourished child or adult.

A good recipe for tomato soup is worth special note. When far any reason a cream soup cannot be conveniently prepared try this:

PLAIN TOMATO SOUP
Tomatoes, one can.
Water, one pint.
Pepper, one teaspoon.
Bay leaf, small bit.
Sugar two teaspoons.
Salt, one teaspoon.
Soda, one-eighth teaspoon.
Malted fat, one teaspoon.
Flour, three teaspoons.
Onion, one slice.
Cook tomatoes, water and seasonings together for twenty minutes; strain, add soda, then flour and fat cooked together.

YOUTH POOR BANDIT. HE TELLS OFFICERS

PAIR IN LONG BEACH HELD FOR ASSAULT ATTEMPT TO HOLD UP WOMAN

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
LONG BEACH, Sept. 29.—Lucky at dice, unlucky at banditry. This, according to Paul Armstrong, youthful adventurer and self-confessed bandit, is his horoscope. Armstrong and Gene Pearce, 19 years old, his companion, were bound over to the grand jury today by Justice Underwood on charges of attempted highway robbery. The youngsters were frustrated a few nights ago, it is said, in their attempt to hold up Mrs. Minnie Sather of 346 Magnolia street, in her grocery store. Facing a .45 caliber automatic pistol held in Armstrong's hand, the grocery keeper declined to take the boys seriously and showed them out of her store. They were arrested on descriptions given by her to Patrolman B. P. Davidson. Armstrong told the policeman that he won a pistol in a crap game at Needles a few days before he came to Long Beach to lead a bandit's life. The boys are held in $100 bail each.

MANY RECIPES GIVEN BY CHEF

powder and half a teaspoon of salt. Work to a smooth dough, roll out half an inch thick and place on a greased baking pan. Mix four tablespoons of sugar with two teaspoons of cinnamon and two tablespoons of chopped almonds. Sprinkle this mixture over the top of the cake. Dot with bits of butter and bake in a quick oven fifteen minutes.

CACTUS JELLY
H. M. C. Pomona, has very kindly sent her method for making cactus jelly and cake filling. For the jelly, peel and slice the fruit and place in a preserving kettle with one sliced lemon for each pint of fruit. Cook until soft. Strain through a jelly bag and add three-quarters of a cup of sugar to each cup of juice. Boil until it gels.

SALAD FOR THREE HUNDRED
J. A. T. Santa Ana, requests a recipe for a gelatin salad for 300 portions to be served with a chicken patte. Soak three cups of gelatin in three quarts of cold water for ten minutes. Add six quarts of boiling water, four cups of sugar and six cups of strained lemon juice. Stir until it starts to stiffen, then stir in twelve quarts of peeled and diced apples, six quarts of chopped white celery, three quarts of chopped white onions, two quarts of chopped pimientos and one quart of chopped, sweet, green peppers. Pour into greased, enameled baking pans and set in a cool place until firm. Cut in squares and serve on leaves of lettuce. It will take about three dozen heads of lettuce to serve this salad to 300. Use either a boiled salad dressing or a lemon mayonnaise.

COOKING VENISON JERKEY
M. A. C. El Centro, asks for directions for cooking venison jerky or dried venison. Cover two cups of the dried venison with two cups of boiling water and let stand one hour. Place on the fire and simmer slowly for thirty minutes. Place in a saucepan two tablespoons of butter and two tablespoons of oil. Fry the venison in the oil and butter until browned on both sides. Sprinkle with salt, paprika, and a seasoning of salt. Cook until the sauce is thick and smooth. Drain the venison from the sauce and add the venison to the sauce. Heat and serve over slices of toasted bread.

RECIPE CORRECTED
L. N. W. city, has called our attention to the sponge cake recipe published in this column last Saturday. The sugar was omitted. The recipe should read: Beat the yolks of three eggs and half a cup of sugar until light and lemon colored. Beat the whites of three eggs until stiff and add them to the beaten yolks and sugar and beat well. Sift one and a half cups of flour with one and a half level teaspoons of baking powder and add to the egg mixture with half a cup of boiling water and half a cup of oil. Beat until smooth. Bake in a moderate oven. Do not bake too fast.

CHICAGO CLUB SANDWICH
R. L. W. city, requests the recipe for a special club sandwich served at one of the prominent Chicago clubs. Toast lightly two slices of white bread and one even sized slice of rye bread. Butter one slice of white bread and cover with slices of cooked chicken, turkey, cover this with slices of hot, crisp bacon; cover with the buttered slice of rye toast; cover the rye toast with a lettuce leaf that has been coated with mayonnaise and sprinkle the lettuce with finely chopped sweet pepper and red pepper. Cover with the remaining slice of white toast. Serve on hot plate garnished with ripe olives and radishes.

TENDER PANCAKES
M. A. A. Santa Monica, is compiling a recipe book and the recipe printed in this column form the largest part of the book. She would like to have a recipe for pancakes that are tender. Sift in a bowl one cup of flour, two level teaspoons of baking powder, and one-third of a teaspoon of salt. Make a well in the center of the flour and drop in one well-beaten egg and beat in half a cup of milk. Beat until smooth, then with a wire egg beater beat in one teaspoon of melted butter and one-quarter of a cup of milk. Beat well and bake the cakes on a hot griddle.

PICKLED GHERKINS
L. M. C. Yorba Linda, had very good success with the dill pickle recipe, and would like a recipe for gherkin pickles. Rub fresh-picked green gherkins with a coarse towel wrung out in cold water. Place the cleaned gherkins in layers in a stone jar and sprinkle each layer with salt. When jar is three-quarters full pour over a brine made with three-quarters of a pound of salt and one gallon of water. Let stand twelve hours. Drain, rinse and pack the gherkins in layers in a clean jar or wooden tub and place between each layer a branch of dill, two cloves and a few pepper corns. When jar is packed cover with hot wine or cider vinegar. Cover top with a layer of grape leaves and light wooden cover. On that place a clean stone to keep the pickles immersed. Keep in a cool dark place for thirty days.

MOCK MEAT LOAF
R. D. Hollywood, requests a recipe for a mock meat loaf. Put through the fine knife of a food chopper two cups of shelled walnuts and two cups of bread crumbs and mix with them two teaspoons of salt, half a teaspoon of paprika, one teaspoon of onion juice, two tablespoons of flour, one teaspoon of finely chopped parsley and two cups of milk. Place the mixture in a saucepan and bring to a boil. Pour into a baking pan and bake rich brown in a medium oven.

BUTTER SCOTCH PIE
M. W. S. Hollywood, used the recipe we gave over a year ago for butter scotch pie and found it very fine, but unfortunately she lost it and wants to know if we will give it again. As this is a very popular recipe and as we have many new readers we will give it once more. Beat until light and creamy the yolks of two eggs and a scant cup of brown sugar. Beat in one tablespoon of creamed butter, and two tablespoons of sifted flour. Mix smooth and beat in slowly one cup of rich milk. Place mixture in a double boiler and stir until thick and smooth. Cool and add one teaspoon of vanilla extract. Pour into a baked pie shell. Make a meringue of the two egg whites and four tablespoons of powdered sugar and spread over the pie. Place in the oven and bake a light brown. Can be served hot or cold.

subscriptions entered up to midnight of today, (Sept. 30) will be accepted at par (100).

$10.00 cash is all that is required as first payment of a $100 Non-convertible trust indenture note, giving equitable OWNERSHIP in the entire Palos Verdes project.

Unlike mortgage notes or bonds which return to the principal and interest, these notes secured by the trust real assets, and are therefore certain in value and income, proportionately with increase in value of the improved property. Until the last asset of the trust is liquidated, the notes participate in all incomes and profits. They are entitled to receive full return of their value from net incomes, and thereafter they receive 90% of net income until the last foot of land and the trust asset has been liquidated.

Not one dollar of the underwriting funds has as yet been disbursed, entire underwriting fund heretofore paid in being intact in the hands of the trustee.

From the expenditure of the first dollar of this fund, to the distribution of the last dollar of income and profit, the administration of the entire project is under the full control of the trustee the Title Insurance and Trust Company, with the protection and advantage to the investor, of a complete control by the trustee, under a trust indenture, that defines clearly the powers, limitations and plans under which the trust funds must be administered. No better investment has been offered the public.

Reservations telegraphed or mailed or entered in person before midnight of today will be held a reasonable time, at par, at the discretion of the Trustees, but unless the subscription has been mailed or entered in person at one of our offices, or a reservation has been mailed, telegraphed or filed in person for an allotment of these notes at par, before midnight of today, it will not be accepted at less than 102½ after midnight of today.

With the advance of the engineering, planning and organization work, a first advance in subscription price from par to 102½, commensurate with interest charges, will be made at midnight of September 30th.

Today, until midnight, you can subscribe these notes at par, making a first payment of 10% and paying the balance in thirty-six equal monthly installments with interest. Any part or all of your subscription can be paid at any time, but to secure an allotment of these notes at par, your subscription or reservation must be entered before midnight of September 30th. Subscriptions deposited in the mails, or telegraphic reservations prior to midnight of September 30th will be entitled to par price, though not received until after that date.

Reservations made in good faith for all allotments, at par, will at the discretion of the trustee, hold good a reasonable time after September 30th.

Your subscription or reservation may be given or mailed or wired to the trustee, Title Insurance and Trust Company, 5th and Spring St., Los Angeles, or to any of the offices listed below.
